NJ's Eviction Protections & Self-Certification Form

If you live in a NJ household with income below 120% of your county's Area Median Income (AMI), you are permanently protected from eviction or removal at any time for nonpayment of rent, habitual late payment of rent, or failure to accept a rent increase that accrued from March 1, 2020 to August 31, 2021.

- ❑ The eviction moratorium is not automatic for those who are eligible.
- ❑ Each individual MUST self-certify by completing the Income Self-Certification Form online.
- ❑ Address, county of residence, total number of household members, and household income are required.

? Frequently Asked Questions

Who should complete the Income Self-Certification form?

The tenant whose name appears on the lease or who is responsible for paying rent to the landlord of the rental premises.

Am I expected to calculate or determine my household income level?

No. The online interactive tool will calculate your household income level based on your answers to a few questions and will then automatically generate your self-certification form.

After I submit the Self-Certification form, what's next?

A copy is sent to the e-mail address you provided at completion. You must send a copy to your landlord. The online interactive tool also allows you to send the form directly to the court if you enter a docket number for an eviction case that has been filed against you.
